

Cambridge Muslim College

Research Fellow

The Cambridge Muslim College invites applications for the post of Research Fellow to be based at the College's facility in Cambridge, U.K., for one academic year with effect from 1 September 2011.

The College seeks an outstanding candidate who is engaged in innovative, robust and world-class research who will make a major contribution to the College's intellectual life. During his or her appointment at the College the post-holder will be expected to complete a significant research project, preferably taking the form of three articles for peer-reviewed publications, or the preparation of a monograph. The College is especially interested in post-doctoral students with a specialisation in Islamic Studies, interfaith relations, or British Muslim studies.

In addition, the successful candidate will be expected to offer a maximum of six lectures, participate in seminars and attend College's public lectures on behalf of the College.

The successful applicant will be expected to begin on 1st September 2011 and the post will continue to 31st August 2012. Applicants must have completed a PhD in a relevant discipline by the start date for this post, and must demonstrate a commitment to the aims and ethos of the College. The Research Fellow will be given access to the College's library, office space and equipment, and administrative support. The successful applicant will be remunerated at a rate of £29,133 per annum.

The deadline for applications to be received at the College is 5.00pm, 3rd June 2011.

Applicants should submit a covering letter, a personal statement, curriculum vitae and two sealed letters of recommendation (including one from a thesis supervisor). The personal statement should describe the ambitions and interests of the applicant, should include a synopsis of the PhD and an outline of the research project or projects that the applicant would undertake during the period of engagement. Inclusion of published work would be an advantage.

Applications should be submitted by post to:

Cambridge Muslim College,
12 Grange Road,
Cambridge,
CB3 9DU.

The Cambridge Muslim College is an equal opportunities employer. Information about the College may be found at www.cambridgemuslimcollege.org.

Further particulars may be obtained from info@cambridgemuslimcollege.org